2 CORINTHIANS 7

(p. 544)

We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians, and opened wide our hearts to you. We are not withholding our affection from you, but you are withholding yours from us. As a fair exchange—I speak as to my children
—open wide your hearts also.

2 Corinthians 6:11-13 NIV

A dramatic scene of a cave opening. On the left, a bright light streams through a jagged rock opening, creating a strong lens flare and illuminating the dark interior of the cave. The rock walls are textured and appear to have some mineral deposits. The overall mood is one of hope and breakthrough.
